UPCOMING CONCERT STAGE / FEBRUARY 17

DONNA HERULA & TONY NARDIELLO

Donna Herula and Tony Nardiello are a fantastic Chicago-area traditional acoustic blues, husband and wife duo that has a passion for performing Delta, country, folk and early Chicago Blues.

Donna, an accomplished slide guitarist with a powerful blues voice, has been inspired by artists from Son House to Rory Block. Donna is a member of the LCFC and was inducted into the Chicago Blues Hall of Fame.

Tony is a talented singer, guitarist, and harmonica player, and a disciple of country blues legends Mississippi John Hurt, Blind Blake and Lightin' Hopkins. Together, they bring a special harmony, heart and driving rhythm to the acoustic blues tradition. C'mon out and get your mojo workin' in February at the LCFC!

✱ OPENING: PETER MACDONALD

Stepping out from behind the mixing board for the evening's concert will be Peter MacDonald—a longtime folk-clubber and volunteer member of our fantastic sound engineering team. Peter is fluent in a wide variety of traditional musical styles, and charms audiences with his affable personality, tasteful guitar playing and soothing voice.

UPCOMING CONCERT STAGE / MARCH 17

LEE MURDOCK

From the Auld (Old) Sod to the New Prairie: The Irish in America

In celebration of St. Patrick's Day, join Lee Murdock for a musical celebration of Ireland with songs of the Emerald Isle from the Irish-American immigrant experience.

Best-known for his interpretations of local and Great Lakes songs, Lee has also spent many years researching and performing songs from Ireland. In fact, his musical influences span over five centuries, from ancient Celtic harp melodies and piano rags written by the likes of Scott Joplin, to more contemporary American music.

Be ready to join in a boisterous chorus of a famous Irish Pub song, share the sly joke in a humorous old ballad, follow along to a soft Irish air or an infectious dance tune. Follow the Irish across "The Big Pond" with songs of the Irish immigrants who settled in Ohio and around the Great Lakes, a landscape so reminiscent of their homeland.

★ OPENING: MARGIE SKORA

Opening this evening's concert will be club member Margie Skora, a frailing banjoist extraordinaire with a flare for unusual genres as well as more traditional mountain fare. Margie is always exploring unique tunings and textures on the banjo, and she's a lovely singer of ballads as to boot.

Open Stage / Second Sundays

The second Sunday of each month is our Open Stage night, hosted by Scott Engstrom. Come out and enjoy some great local musical talent! Non-performing listeners are always encouraged and will be pleasantly surprised with the diverse musical styles represented. There's a little something for everyone.

Anyone who would like to perform is encouraged to do so.

You'll never find a more supportive audience than at the LCFC. Sign-up begins at 6:30 PM and the music starts at 7:00. Each performer is allowed up to two songs spanning about 10 minutes. If time permits—and it usually does—artists can perform an additional song near evening's end. (suggested $3 donation)

Song Circle / Fourth Sundays

On the fourth Sunday of each month we hold our Song Circle. Members and non-members are always welcome. Come out to play or just listen.

Make music, learn new songs, make new friends.

Marcia Krieger, along with other members of the LCFC, hosts our Song Circle. It's a casual opportunity to kick back, play some music and meet others. The participants form a circle—each one in turn can choose to play a song, ask another participant for a song, or pass. It's a chance to lead songs or to join in with others. We keep moving around the circle until it's time to call it a night. (suggested $3 donation)

Behind the Song / Check Schedule

We are thrilled to (occasionally) present a special Behind the Song concert, hosted by Chuck VanderVennet. These unique events are an intimate exploration of the personal craft of songwriting from one artist's perspective.

Entertainment and inspiration.

Part concert, part interview, Chuck speaks candidly with the featured artist, and deftly exposes the backstory underlying song origins, stylistic choices, and the process of songwriting. Chuck also provides an opportunity for audience interaction, voicing any burning questions attendees might have. These are inspirational evenings for any music lover.

Our Venues

Grayslake Heritage Center

The Grayslake Heritage Center located at 164 Hawley Street in downtown Grayslake is our home for the majority of club events, including Open Stage, Song Circle and most concerts. This intimate space in a building rich with history and warmth of community is in perfect alignment with the folk music tradition we proselytize at our club events.

The Grayslake Heritage Center & Museum has become well known for assembling and displaying a wide variety of fascinating exhibits centered on Grayslake history. And we are part of that rich history! The Lake County Folk Club was founded in October 1991 at the Last Chance Saloon in downtown Grayslake.

Grayslake Village Hall

The LCFC is very excited to occasionally host some concerts at the beautiful Grayslake Village Hall theater space. We will make it clear in which performances will take place at this venue—just look for the icon on the left in concert listings.

The Village Hall is located at 10 South Seymour Avenue in downtown Grayslake, just west of the railroad tracks, and just a couple of blocks away from our typical venue, the Heritage Center.
